

August 9th
Triples Alley Party 4:45, Game 7:15

Triple Play! - Supporting Parks in 3 Counties. (don't balk at this deal...)

The California State Parks Foundation and the Sonoma County Regional Parks Foundation have teamed up with the San Francisco Giants and members of the Grateful Dead to help save the State Parks. A portion of the proceeds from the August 9th, SF Giants vs Pittsburgh Pirates, game and a VIP pre-game party will help keep eleven state parks open that are slated for closure in Sonoma, Marin, and San Francisco Counties. You can help save state parks and have a good time too!

Triples Alley Party and Game Tickets: The Giants are hosting a pre-game party in Triples Alley, a part of AT&T Park on the field level! Special guests will include Grateful Dead member Mickey Hart and basketball star Bill Walton. You will also have the chance to observe batting practice from the outfield during the party. Other benefits include:

- Lower box seat to the game
- Limited edition "Dancing Bears" statue
- Limited edition Sonoma County Regional Parks/Grateful Dead t-shirt

Tickets are $400 and must be purchased by August 1st.

Hurry! There are only 100 tickets available!

For more info or to get your tickets to the game and party
Sonoma County Regional Parks Foundation
(707) 565-2041

or purchase on-line at www.Calparks.org/Giants

